COMPONENT 1 - IMPROVE KNOWLEDGE OF LEGAL REMEDIES

Result 1.3: Practical knowledge of vulnerable populations of how to access and use tools improved through traditional and social media

Access to Justice Program completed a three-day “Strategic Communication Planning” workshop in the Basrah International Hotel on May 15-17 for nine new grantees: Sayed Al-Shuhdaa Organization for Social Development, Hiyad, Hadia, Amal Association Humanitarian Al Basrya, Al-Taqwa Association, Al-Arqam Cultural Charity Association, Rawaby, Al-Meameen Organization, and the Iraqi Center for Human Rights Activists (ICHR). Participants totaled 18 (6 females, 13 males).

The training was designed to build the capacity of grantees in designing, planning, implementing, and monitoring awareness raising campaigns targeting vulnerable groups. Topics included, but were not limited to, identifying campaign goals, the target audience, messages, communication tools, implementation, and monitoring and evaluation of campaigns.

Result 1.4: Effective Monitoring and Evaluation of Implementing Partner Public Awareness Campaigns

The Program completed a focused training session with the nine Basrah grantees mentioned above to review the requirements for USAID Marking and Branding. The grantees were also given directions on the necessary contents of weekly reports. This presentation was supported by lessons learned from previous and current grantees implementing awareness activities.

The program reviewed and provided corrective feedback on the draft design for the Civil Development Organization’s (CDO) sign post for the legal center in Kirkuk.

COMPONENT 2 - IMPROVE LEGAL EDUCATION AND SERVICES

Result 2.1: Support Iraqi NGOs Working in Priority Access to Justice Areas to Improve their Administrative and Substantive Capacity to Support Vulnerable Populations

Preparations for the upcoming workshop on Legal Clinic Best Practices to be held at the Basrah International Hotel between May 25th and 30th have been finalized. Invitations were distributed and 16 participants from 8 NGOs, 2 from each, are expected to attend.

A2J completed a preliminary site visit to Voice of Older People (VOP) on May 9th in Shekhan. The legal clinic, which will begin implementing legal clinic services shortly, will help women register marriages and provide other legal support services to vulnerable women. Many of the legal clinic beneficiaries are of the Yazidi religious minority. A2J provided VOP with technical assistance on reporting protocols, legal cases documentation, legal cases confidentiality and beneficiary's privacy, archiving documents related to cases classification, power of attorney, and legal clinics' network.

A2J completed a site visit to Harikar NGO in Dohuk on May 10th. The Harikar NGO will raise awareness of rights for women and IDPs and how they might demand justice in accordance with the existing laws and legislation in the Dohuk governorate. In addition, a legal clinic will be established in the Dohuk governorate, with a phone line providing free legal information, consultations, advice and guidance for women and IDPs. A2J provided Harikar NGO with technical assistance on reporting protocols, archiving documents related to cases classification, and client confidentiality.

A2J completed a site visit to Fatema House Association in Baghdad on May 13th. The head of Fatema House Association mentioned the huge numbers of beneficiaries with a limited team to work with them as a major challenge. To date the legal clinic has received 603 legal matter cases, out of which 141 have been completed.

A2J completed a site visit to Baghdad Women's Association (BWA) on May 17th. BWA started implementing legal clinic activities aimed at assisting vulnerable women that includes victims of domestic violence. To date the clinic has provided legal advice to five women and is providing legal representation to one woman to register her marriage. The team reviewed the reporting protocols, documentation process, case coding and classification, required case forms, as well as filing systems. BWA asked for technical assistance on the creation of a monthly implementation plan for their clinic activities to ensure they meet the objectives of their grant, which the Component 2 technical team will provide.

A2J began rolling out a close out report to measure the progress of organizational capacity and direct legal service provision of the current legal clinic grantees through the life cycle of their grant. Al Amal Najaf, Kirkuk and Fatema House reports are complete, and the team will finalize the remaining close out reports over the coming weeks.

Success Story

A.K. is a divorced woman residing with her two children at her parents' home in Mosul. She learned about the Al-Malak A2J legal assistance program through posters, a part of the Program-funded awareness campaign. She subsequently visited the Al-Malak legal clinic in Mosul, seeking help on accessing her right to have her two children added to her parents' ration card rather than their father's card.

She met with legal clinic's lawyer, who informed her of her legal rights, and that a custody and alimony decision should be first obtained, and then her two children could be legally transferred to her parents' ration card.

A.K. signed a power of attorney for the lawyer to take on the case. A lawsuit was filed at the Personal Status Court on February 2, 2012, and the court recently rendered a decision on alimony obligation. A copy of this decision was sent to the Food State Company for ration card status change. As a result, A.K. is now entitled to receive IQD 25000 in alimony every month from her husband. Additionally, her parents' ration card status was changed to include A.K.'s two children so that they are able to obtain the benefits to which the children are legally entitled.

2.2: Work with Iraqi legal professional associations (primarily the Iraqi Bar Association and Jurist Union and their subsidiaries) to increase administrative and substantive capacity for empowering lawyers and other legal professionals to assist vulnerable or disadvantaged populations

A2J met with IBA representatives on May 15th and discussed the preparations for the roll-out of the new Human Rights for Legal Professionals training course to be held in early June 2012. The team also discussed the status of IBA grant activities and provided technical advice to the IBA on how to finalize the study of legal impediments to vulnerable groups, one of the Program grant deliverables. The final version of the study is scheduled for completion on June 15th. Finally, the IBA presented A2J with a draft of the training materials for lawyers designed under the A2J grant, and will be reviewed in the coming weeks by the A2J training specialist and C2 lawyers before roll out.

Result 2.4: Support Development of Programs and Modernization of Academic and Practical Curriculum Related to Extending Access to Justice to Vulnerable Populations at Law Schools in Iraqi Universities in Key Locations throughout Iraq

A2J completed a site visit to Baghdad Law School on May 10th and provided technical guidance to the Law School Legal Clinic on reporting, recording, and updating the number of students that attend lectures.

A2J completed a site visit to Al-Nahrain Law School on May 17, 2012 to discuss the possibility of Al-Nahrain applying for a grant to open a law school legal clinic. The team presented the A2J model for law school legal clinics, involving a legal clinic course as well as student participation in the clinic work. Al Nahrain is interested in applying for a grant, and the team will conduct a follow-up meeting next week. During the meeting, the Deputy Dean asked for legal assistance to help one of his employees who had been left by her husband with five children to support. The A2J team will refer the case to one of our grantee legal clinics for free assistance.

The Basrah Office and Dr. Mohammad of the Dhi Qar Law School discussed the comments from the A2J Grant Evaluation Committee related to the school's legal clinic proposal. Dr. Muhammad agreed to review the application forms and make the necessary changes, open an account for the proposed legal clinic, work on the required details in the clinic's budget, and keep the Basrah Office updated.

A2J will follow-up with Iraqi Law Schools that expressed interest in Program support for the opening of legal clinics at the recently held Deans Council Meeting in Erbil in the coming weeks and will be ongoing until every interested school has been given guidance on how to apply for a grant for legal clinics and practical legal clinical education.

COMPONENT 3 - ADVOCACY AND IMPROVED GOVERNMENT SERVICES

Result 3.1: Support Partners in Reviewing Processes and Procedures for Reform of Policies, Regulations, and Legislation as they Relate to Vulnerable Populations

Component 3 coordinated with the Iraqi Bar Association for the May 30th visibility event styled as a Moot Court in Advocacy on the need for a strong law on the needs of persons with disabilities. A2J staff reached out to disability-centric NGOs that are supported by and known to the Program in order to seek appropriate attendance and participation, in coordination with the IBA's legal committee. The project previously provided technical assistance for the event, which will be conducted by IBA under its grant.

Result 3.2: Coalitions, Hotlines, or Other Positive Linkages to Support Government Efforts to Improve Legal Frameworks for Vulnerable Populations

A2J followed-up on a request from the IFES project and the Elections Commission (IHEC) in gathering a potential team of proven NGOs to work with the three governorates in the Iraqi Kurdistan Region on elections issues for vulnerable groups. The Program identified candidate NGOs and the vulnerable groups most likely to benefit from awareness and procedural improvements (women under family influence, IDPs with address issues, persons with disabilities who may not be able to reach polling stations), and we reported our progress to IFES, with the proviso that USAID agreement will be needed if work is to go significantly beyond these initial exploratory stages.

In June, the Program will facilitate a meeting with COMSEC that will include and introduce some of A2J's key women's NGOs, while also arranging for a presentation by USAID/Tijara's microfinance unit to discuss the kinds of micro-lending available to Iraqi women who are in need of entrepreneurship capital to begin or expand a business. This meeting is in response to a request from the COMSEC Civil Affairs Division to address the problem it has identified of women staying at home without any real reason to be at home, who are in need of employment options.

The Program worked on a multi-party effort to present conclusions from the recent Heartland Alliance Roundtable on a regional Trafficking Law to the government and to parliament of the Iraqi Kurdistan Region.

GRANTS ADMINISTRATION

Site visits to the following NGOs were conducted this week:

KURDS NGO in Dohuk
Hataw in Sulaymaniyah
CDO in Sulaymaniyah
Warvin in Erbil
Al-Shabak in Ninawa Province
Al-Malak in Mosul

OPERATIONS

Representatives from the Basrah Regional Office participated in the cost sharing meeting held at the US Consulate in Basrah. Participants from UNHCR, Lukoil Company, Mercy Corps, Tarabot and USAID discuss cost sharing, the benefits, and the working process. A committee was established to analyze how to present cost sharing as an option to fund and support Iraqi projects instead of only grant funding.
